Summary of Content: This textbook is to be used as an evaluation tool for oral comprehension at the advanced level. It comes with a CD made up of 16 audio documents which include public speeches, interviews, informal discussions, daily news, and so on. These diverse documents relate to the four categories used in the CECR (Cadre Européen Commun de Référence) classification for the intermediate level B2 (Independent User, level 2): social rituals, news, and expressions of one's opinions, emotions. For each document corresponds a set of test exercises to guide global comprehension and detailed comprehension, and identify specific vocabulary. The two other sections contain the exercises' corrections and the transcription of the recordings.

Level: Proficient User (level 2): B2

Public: FLE learners, Adults

Teaching suggestions: Designed to be used by students in a class setting or at home for self-evaluation, this is a useful resource to help learners enhance their comprehension skills. It can also complement other materials for TCF/TEF training at the advanced level.
