

Teach yourself French grammar (2nd edition)

Call number/Cote : 445/GRA/ADA

Series: Teach yourself

Authors: Adamson, Robin; Edelston, Brigitte

Publisher: Blacklick, OH: McGraw-Hill

Year Published: 2003

Type: : Grammaires - Grammar books (GRA)

Collection: 100 Titles for Learners of French/Les 100 Titres pour le FLE (MERLIN)

Language: English

Physical description: 1 book (274 pages)

Summary of Content: Starting with the basic grammatical rules in both languages, this book gradually guides the beginner students through the learning process by teaching them the proper use of grammar and vocabulary with the use of contextual examples (dialogues, short stories, etc.). By fluidly transitioning from English to French, the book helps the students master the rules they will use in everyday interactions. This manual gradually elevates the students to a level of confident communication. Both beginner and self-taught students without previous French knowledge will feel comfortable using this book.

Level: Basic User (level 1, 2): A1, A2

Public: FLE learners, adults and young adults with limited knowledge of French.

Teaching suggestions: Good resource to supplement material in the Beginner Language or Grammar class. Also useful to the self-taught students as the grammar lessons are easy to understand.

Call Number: 445/GRA/ADA

