Summary of Content: This manual covers the material intermediate level students need in addition to the class-based teaching. It provides an in-depth review of the beginner level topics and addresses new topics for intermediate level classes. Written entirely in French, it is appropriate for those who have already mastered the basics. It is also recommended for the self-taught student with basic French knowledge. Every lesson contains on the left page the explanations of the grammar rules with examples in French and on the right page application exercises and communication activities. Each lesson ends with a summary section containing “des exercices de récapitulation » and « des bilans » to help students review the content and evaluate their skills. Table of conjugations are provided at the end of the book. Answer keys to the exercises are provided in a separate booklet.

Level: Independent User (level 1): B1

Public: FLE learners, adults and young adults

Teaching suggestions: Recommended for the Language or Grammar course at the intermediate level. Covers materials contained in Connexions 1 (level 2) and Connexions 2.
