Summary of Content: This interactive audio-program consists of 35 lessons organized by theme and narrated by an English speaker. Each lesson starts with a listening and speaking activity to introduce the new vocabulary. The vocabulary is then used in context in a dialogue about everyday situations. Opportunities to repeat one line at a time are provided. Facts about French customs and culture, as well as grammatical pointers, are explained throughout the lessons and are complemented by oral drills and exercises. The program includes a 95-page bilingual listener's guide, which provides the scripts, the lists of new vocabulary in French and English and a grammar summary with a glossary of grammatical terms.
