

Two 60 minute CDs
with paperback book

Teach yourself French

Call number/Cote: 446/PRA/GRA

Series: Teach yourself

Author: Graham, Gaëlle

Publisher: New York: McGraw-Hill

Year Published: 2003

Type: Pratique du français – French Study and Practice (PRA)

Collection: 100 Titles for Learners of French/Les 100 Titres pour le FLE (MERLIN)

Language: English

Physical description: 1 book (274 pages) + 2 CDs (2 hours)

Summary of Content: This audio course is ideal for learners with no prior knowledge of French and who are willing to study on their own. It is also a terrific asset for Beginners FLE students needing additional French practices. The content is divided into 25 chapters plus a reference section. The accompanying CD follows exactly the structures of the exercises, facilitating the learning process. Examples of information contained in the various chapters include: Aims of the lesson, Presentation of new language, Vocabulary exercises, Grammar explanations, Pronunciation tips, Information on French-speaking countries and Study tips. The manual also provides at the end: a review section, transcripts of some of the listening exercises, answer keys to the exercises, a grammar summary, some verb tables and French-English/English-French vocabulary lists.

Level: Basic User (level 1): A1

Public: Adult novice Learners willing to study French on their own.

Teaching suggestions: Excellent asset for FLE Beginner Level 1, can be used as supplemental resource for Beginner Conversation courses.

Call Number: 446/PRA/GRA [book]

CD446/PRA/GRA/1-2 [2 CDs]