Summary of Content: This practical course in business-language French is suitable for students who need to acquire skills in dealing with business negotiations, related social situations and written and spoken commercial situations. Organized around practical situations that make up its 13 chapters, it offers listening and speaking practices and reading comprehension exercises (transcriptions of recorded dialogues are at the end of the book). Each chapter is divided in four sections, with an introductory dialogue, a grammar note, individual and group exercises, a reading and listening section, and a last section giving background information on socio-economic institutions in France. The book also features a list of acronyms and a vocabulary list.

Level: Basic User (level 2) to Independent User (level 1): A2, B1

Public: FLE Learners, Adults

Teaching suggestions: Sections of the book could be of help to complement the Connexions series with practical exercises and can also be used in private class.
