Collection: 100 Titles for Learners of French/Les 100 Titres pour le FLE (MERLIN)
Language: French
Physical description: 1 activity book (95 pages)
Summary of Content: This activity book will familiarize the reader to the French terminology, specialized vocabulary, and current practices and in banking and finance. The seven chapters that make up the resource present with some depth most aspects of current operations relative to opening, running and closing an account, using different modes of payment, as well as the interaction between the banker and the client. Chapters are organized around a set of short dialogues that present the vocabulary in situation, practical exercises (corrections will be found at the end of the book), sample bank forms (such as a blank check, money transfer form, etc.), and formal letters from and/or to the bank. A lexicon of the most useful vocabulary (with definitions in French but no translation in English) and answer keys to the exercises are provided at the end of the book.
Level: Independent (A2/B1) to Proficient User (B1/B1+)
Public: FLE learners, Adults
Teaching suggestions: To be used with students who already have a firm grasp of basic French language, with the specific purpose of learning specialized vocabulary. Parts of it could nevertheless be used for some practical exercises in group or private classes such as how to fill in a check. The book could be of some help for students who are moving to France.
